MISS Cecilia Chin, of Kuala Lumpur, who was the first Chinese girl in Malaya to obtain the music diploma of Licentiate of the Trinity College of London, was married on Dec. 26, 1935, to Mr. Chong Mun Yoke, only son of Mr. Chong Ah Foh, the well-known tin miner of Kuala Lumpur and Sungei Besi, and Mrs. Chong Ah Foh.

The bridegroom is senior Latin master at St. John's Institution, Kuala Lumpur.

The wedding took place at the Church of the Holy Rosary, Brickfields Road, Kuala Lumpur, the Rev. Father Girard taking the service, with Mr. B. Boudeville at the organ for the choral service. The church was decorated.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. A. P. Chin, wore a dress of white satin cut on semi-Western style, with a tulle veil, and long train held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of the white orchids known as Calanthe Veratrifolia.

Her bridesmaids, Miss Margaret O'Hara and Miss Dorothy Ho, wore pink frocks with bandeaux to match.

Masters Teh Yu Kong and Francis Ho were page boys, and the Misses Frances and Bebe Yeo were flower-girls.

A reception was held at the residence of Dr. H. M. Soo, a cousin of the bridegroom and a member of the Kuala Lumpur Sanitary Board.

The honeymoon is being spent at Penang.
